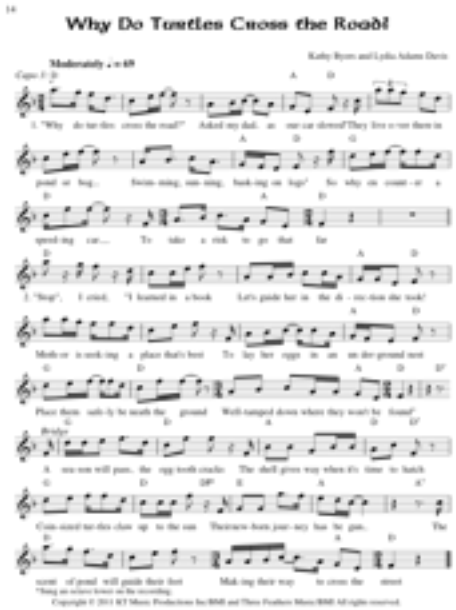
Lydia Adams Davis

One Earth So Green And Round



Singer-Songwriter/Performer/Guitarist/Puppeteer
Arts-in-Education Specialist
Recording Artist~Music Educator

Lydia's most recent CDs: One Earth So and Round Green and Round and We All Have Lunch have been honored with a 2012 Parents' Choice Award. Also named Hudson Valley 2012 Best Kids' Performer by Hudson Valley Magazine.

Programs: Environmental, Puppeteering, Friendship, Hudson River Ballads~songs of Pete Seeger,Songs and Stories in American History, Songwriting events for all ages, all themes including School Songs/Celebrations!

In the world of children's entertainment, Lydia's educational focus is apparent . By creating a performance team with children and adults,highly interactive concerts develop which include intriguing wild animal hand puppets. Rocco, the raccoon, Iguana,and various humorous authentic characters emerge from willing participants..."Lydia is a wonderful song leader and on the spot song smith" Pete Seeger.

Lydia Adams Davis Arts-in-Education Specialist, Puppeteer, Singer-Songwriter, Guitarist, Recording Artist, Music Educator-M.S Special Education, ASL and Orff Certified.

Memberships: BMI/NARAS/Hudson Valley Folk Guild/Folk Alliance International/Northeast Folk Alliance/Regional Folk Alliance/Children's Music Network/ Hudson River Sloop Clearwater/Orange Arts Council/Alliance of NJ Environmental Education/BACA

Discography: We All Have Lunch/One Earth So Green and Round/Take Me Back/Gift of Story

Lydia@lydiaadamsdavis.com 914 805 2537 www.lydiaadamsdavis.com facebook